TRUSTEE'S OBJECTION TO FINAL
APPLICATION OF ATTORNEY FOR CHAPTER 13 DEBTOR
FOR COMPENSATION AND REIMBURSEMENT OF EXPENSES

AND NOW, this 17th day of March 2025, comes Jack N. Zaharopoulos, Standing Chapter 13 Trustee, by and through his attorney Douglas R. Roeder, Esquire, who objects, pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 330(a)(2), to the Final Application of Attorney for Chapter 13 Debtor for Compensation and Reimbursement of Expenses filed on February 21, 2025, and states as follows:

Facts

1. Objectant Jack N. Zaharopoulos is the duly appointed Trustee in this case and, therefore, the representative of the Estate under § 323(a).
2. On October 3, 2022, Debtor filed a Petition under Chapter 13 of the Bankruptcy Code. (ECF No. 1).
3. On February 21, 2025, Applicant filed his Final Application for Interim Compensation and Reimbursement of Expenses. (ECF No. 120).
4. Applicant's Final Fee Application requests $6,596.30 in compensation and reimbursement of expenses. (ECF No. 120).

5. The District has determined that $4,500.00 is a presumptively reasonable fee (“PRF”) for an attorney representing a Debtor in a Chapter 13 Bankruptcy filed in this District throughout the conclusion of the case. L.R. 2016-2 (c)

6. The Fees and Compensation in the present case total approximately $17,879.10 including a retainer received at the beginning of the case in the amount of $2,800.00. (ECF No. 65, 120).

7. On January 23, 2025, the Court entered an order that dismissed the case for unconfirmable plan. (ECF No. 118).

8. The Trustee has approximately $3,272.30 in funds available as evidenced by the case report attached hereto and marked as “Exhibit A”.

Applicable Law

9. The PRF should be used “as a guide or ‘starting point’ to what should be considered a ‘reasonable fee in a routine Chapter 13 case in this District.” In re Thomas, No. 5:18-03265-MJC, 2023 WL 6885827 at *7 (Bankr. M.D. Pa. Oct. 18, 2023); In re Badyrka, No. 5:20-20-03618-MJC, 2022 WL 4656034 at *6 (Bankr. M.D. Pa. Sept. 30, 2022) (citation omitted).

10. Under § 330(a), the Court may award reasonable compensation for actual, necessary services rendered by the attorney and paraprofessionals employed by the attorney, the reasonableness to be based on (i) the nature of the services, (ii) the extent of the services, (iii) the value of the services, (iv) the time spent on the services and (v) the cost of comparable services in non-bankruptcy cases. See In re Busy Beaver Bldg. Ctrs., Inc., 19 F.3d 833, 840 (3rd Cir. 1994).

11. Chapter 13 debtors’ attorneys may be awarded fees pursuant to § 330(a)(4)(B), which allows reasonable fees for representing the interests of Chapter 13 debtors in connection with the bankruptcy case “based on consideration of the benefit and necessity of such services to the debtor and the other factors set forth in this section.” Attorney fees are subject to Court review for reasonableness irrespective of whether the debtor is in agreement with the fee amount. § 329(b); In re Parilla, 530 B.R. 1, 10 (Bankr. D.P.R. 2015).

12. The Third Circuit has noted that “[d]isagreeable as the chore may be, the bankruptcy court must protect the estate, lest overreaching attorneys or other professionals drain it of wealth which by right should inure to the benefit of unsecured creditors.” Busy Beaver, 19 F.3d at 844 (citation omitted).

13. The “court shall not allow compensation for (i) unnecessary duplication of services; or (ii) services that were not (I) reasonably likely to benefit the debtor’s estate; or (II) necessary to the administration of the case.” § 330(a)(4)(A).

14. Under Bankruptcy Rule 2017(b), the Court “may determine whether any payment of money or any transfer of property, or any agreement therefor, by the debtor to an attorney after entry of an order for relief in a case under the Code is excessive . . .” Fed. R. Bankr. P. 2017(b).

15. The applicant bears the burden of proving that the fees and expenses sought are reasonable and necessary. Zolfo, Cooper & Co. v. Sunbeam-Oster Co., Inc., 50 F.3d 253, 261 (3rd Cir. 1995). “When the issues are not complex and the process is straightforward, an attorney is expected to exercise ‘billing judgment’ and is encouraged to reduce its customary fees in appropriate circumstances to reflect a less substantial expenditure of the attorney’s time.” In re Parilla, 530 B.R. 1, 13 (Bankr. D.P.R. 2015) (quoting In re Thorn, 192 B.R. 52, 56 (Bankr. N.D.N.Y. 1984)).

16. “Excessive attorney’s fees should not be awarded where such award contravenes the purposes of Chapter 13.” In re Tcherneva, 638 B.R. 676 (Bankr. E.D.N.Y. 2022).

17. The Court must conduct an objective inquiry based upon what services a reasonable lawyer or law firm would have performed in the same circumstances. In re Fleming Companies, Inc., 304 B.R. 85, 89-90 (Bankr. D. Del. 2003). A “judge’s experience with fee petitions and his or her expert judgment pertaining to appropriate billing practices, bounded on an understanding of the legal profession, will be the starting point for any analysis.” Id. (citing Busy Beaver, 19 F.3d at 854). When making its consideration, the Court is not required to make a line-by-line analysis of the fee application, and a sampling will suffice. See, e.g., In re Maruko, Inc., 160 B.R. 633, 642 (Bankr. S.D. Cal. 1993). Since “its time is precious, the reviewing Court need only correct reasonable discernible abuses, not pin down to the nearest dollar the precise fee to which the professional is ideally entitled.” Busy Beaver, 19 F.3d 833 at 844-845; see also In re Strauss, No. 21-00995-MJC (Bankr. M.D. Pa. Mar. 31, 2023).

18. The Court may use a percentage deduction as a practical means of “trimming fat from a fee application” if the Court determines that some of the time claimed by a party should be excluded. In re Nicholas, 496 B.R. 69, 76 (Bankr. E.D.N.Y. 2011). See also In re Old Summit Mfg., LLC, 323 B.R. 154, 162-163 (Bankr. MD. Pa. 2004) (50% reduction); In re Sullivan, 674 F.3d 65 (1st Cir. 2012); In re Claudio, 459 B.R. 500 (Bankr. D. Mass. 2011); In re Spillman Dev. Grp., Ltd., 376 B.R. 543 (Bankr. W.D. Tex. 2007).

19. Judge France previously stated “[a] bankruptcy court must balance adequately compensating attorneys in order to encourage competent counsel to represent bankruptcy debtors with insuring that the costs of administration do not consume assets that otherwise would be available to creditors. In making a fee determination, the court must take into consideration whether the professional exercised “reasonable billing judgment.” In re Fontaine, 2015 WL 5162557, at *3 (Bankr. M.D. Pa. 2015).

20. Finally, with regard to defending fee applications, the Supreme Court has been clear in stating: “Section 330(a)(1) itself does not authorize the award of fees for defending a fee application, and that is the end of the matter.” Baker Botts LLP v. Asarco LLC, 135 S. Ct. 2158, 2169 (2015).

Analysis and Facts Specific to the Present Fee Application

21. The Trustee believes and therefore avers, that the estate is not funded to pay the fees requested in the present fee application. The Trustee only has approximately $3,273.30 available, which will be paid to the fees granted in the first fee application. Accordingly, the estate is not funded to pay any of the fees requested in the present fee application.

WHEREFORE, the Trustee respectfully requests this Honorable Court to set a hearing on the Application and, after hearing, appropriately adjust Applicant’s request for compensation.

Respectfully submitted,
